

Get to know your health plan ID card.

Your health plan ID card includes information about you and your coverage. Carry it with you wherever you go, and show it when you visit your doctor or pharmacy so they know how to bill for their services. Remember to destroy your old ID card.

Front of the card (sample)

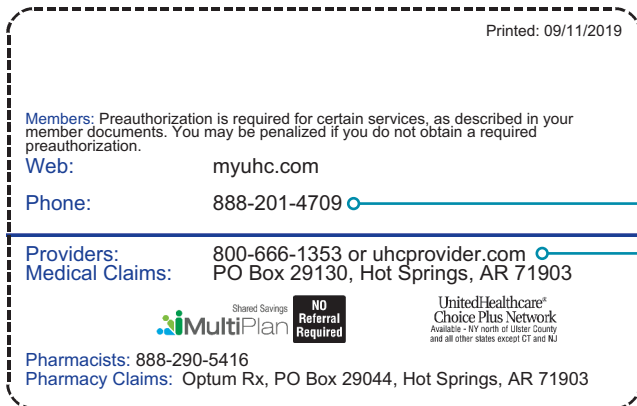

Member ID and Group Number

Use these when registering on myuhc.com or calling with questions. Also, your providers (e.g., doctor, pharmacy) will need this new information from you.

Your prescription coverage

Your pharmacist will use this to determine which medications are covered.

Your network

Back of the card (sample)

Your member toll-free phone number

For prompt customer service, provide your Member ID to the automated attendant when you call the toll-free member phone number.

Provider website

The provider website for your plan is uhcprovider.com.

Please share this information with your provider when you visit.

Note: This is a representative sample only. Your actual Oxford Member ID card will show information specific to you and your plan.

 Questions?
Call the member number on your ID card.
