The screenshot shows the UnitedHealthcare website homepage. At the top left is the UnitedHealthcare logo. Below it is a navigation bar with links for Home, Plans, Tools, and About UnitedHealthcare. A search bar is located at the top right. The main content area is divided into several sections: a 'Headlines' section with three news items; a 'Featured Tools & Resources' section with sub-sections for 'Health Reform' and 'Education and Training'; a 'Get a Quote: 2-50 Employees' section with a 'Log in' button and a 'Register' link; a 'Featured Plan Information' section with a link to an 'Online Administration Guide for New Clients'; and a 'United Advantage' section with a link to a 'Knowledge Institute: Exclusive Training Program Geared Toward New Brokers'. On the right side, there is a 'Quick Links' section with several links, a 'Your Opinion Matters to Us' survey section, a 'United for Reform Resource Center' section, and an 'Online Tools You Can Use' section. Red callout boxes with lines pointing to specific elements are overlaid on the page, providing additional context for each feature.
